A New Homeless Shelter in Pottstown?

We are beginning to contact people to help start this vitally needed work here in town to bless the less fortunate, as well as the counties that this impacts. Please contact Bill Kraft for more information.

Your Prayer Notes:

Please pray for the flood victims here in our own neighborhood. We are collecting items that have been lost for many. Like: washing machines, dryers, etc. Please Paul and Sherri Rabenold for how you can help.

Also, pray for the restoration of the Parish House, and/or where we could meet until we are able to hold Tabernacle there again;

For the Rabenold's Aunt Betty for serious health concerns;

Please keep Cat Brown & her sister, Howard & Francis, Melvin & Nancy, Helen & Hank, & Brenton in your prayers for strength; and Pray for Lori Coleman and her 2 sons for strength and guidance after the loss of their Husband/Father.

Next week... Psalm 24, 2 Samuel 6:1-5, 12b-19,

Mark 6:14-29, & Ephesians 1:3-14

"He restores my soul . . .
surely goodness and mercy will follow me" Psalm 23

The Week of July 9, 2006 ~ (Year B)

"My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

Our Mission

To pursue God's heart and mission of building a worshipful faith community within the Pottstown area, through good works and home churches; recognizing Jesus as King of the universe, and worshiping Him privately and publicly because He is worthy.

psalm 48

1 Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised in the city of our God. His holy mountain, 2 beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth, Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King. 3 Within its citadels God has shown himself a sure defense. 4 Then the kings assembled, they came on together. 5 As soon as they saw it, they were astounded; they were in panic, they took to flight; 6 trembling took hold of them there, pains as of a woman in labor, 7 as when an east wind shatters the ships of Tarshish. 8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God, which God establishes forever. Selah
9 We ponder your steadfast love, O God, in the midst of your temple. 10 Your name, O God, like your praise, reaches to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is filled with victory. 11 Let Mount Zion be glad, let the towns of Judah rejoice because of your judgments. 12 Walk about Zion, go all around it, count its towers, 13 consider well its ramparts; go through its citadels, that you may tell the next generation 14 that this is God, our God forever and ever. He will be our guide forever.

[The Scripture]

mark 6:1-13

1 He left that place and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. 2 On the Sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! 3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. 4 Then Jesus said to them, "Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house." 5 And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. 6 And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then he went about among the villages teaching. 7 He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. 8 He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; 9 but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. 10 He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. 11 If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them." 12 So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. 13 They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

"My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness."

Reflection: Where does your security lie? When have you experienced God's power at full strength in weakness? Where have you been made unwelcome because of your faith in God's liberating power? How have you dealt with that?
