Thank you for your prayers while we address the growing problem of homelessness here in Pottstown. We are hosting the shelter in the Parish House this month and still looking for volunteers for this ministry. This collaborative is called The Ministries at MAIN Street. To volunteer please see Pastor Kork.

Our Mayor has asked us to pray and fast...

In another ministry appeal—who would enter into a fast of corporate agreement for Pottstown from January 1 until February 9. Much victory was commanded by the nation of Israel as they proclaimed corporate fasting. Our fast times will be from noon until 4 pm daily for maximum participation. Consider this in prayer. The lent season will be the next 'corporate opportunity'. This is a Lighthouse of prayer initiative. Sharon Valentine-Thomas

notes

Meditation: “Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers. 2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night. 3 He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers.” (Ps.1 .1-3)

Reflection: Today's readings are full of blessings and curses. But just who is blessed? For the psalmist, it is those who "delight in the law of the Lord," who follow "the way of the righteous." For Jeremiah, it is those who "trust in the Lord"—which is far deeper than a matter of mere belief.

Jesus' blessings are much more specific, though their meaning is not as obvious. "Blessed are you who are poor. Blessed are you who are hungry now." Jesus is not just telling us how to be happy; he's not saying, "You should be poor, then you'll be happy." Rather, he says, if you are hungry now, when the reign of God arrives in its fullness, you will be filled.

Jesus is proclaiming the complete reversal of the fortunes of the rich and the poor, the powerful and the powerless, the full and the empty - and this overturning of the human order of things is not for some far-off future time, but is among us, for us to choose, here and now.
