Announcements:

Thank you for your prayers while we address the growing problem of homelessness here in Pottstown. This collaborative effort is called The Ministries at MAIN Street. We are moving into a new phase, where we are trying to make the shelter a permanent resource to the Pottstown area. This will require a ton of summer work in order to reopen this fall. To volunteer please see Pastor Kork.

Prayer Requests:

Prayers Collections from the Worship Table

- ✓ Lord, help us in our weakness to continue your work in our community. ~SW
- ✓ In the last 6 months our friend Jeff Reifsnyder has been dealing with more and more complications from ESLD (end-stage liver disease). Recently his doctors have told him that he is "starting on a downward spiral and moving closer to transplant." He has been dealing with bouts and jaundice and other things lately, and his doctors have taken driving privileges from him due to encephalopathy which causes a delayed response. Please keep them in prayer!

Resurrecting the Will

“... be filled with the Holy Spirit.” And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength. For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus, and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, “He is the Son of God.” (John 9 .17b-20) your discussion notes...

Meditation: “ He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?” He asked, “Who are you, Lord?” The reply came, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.”
(Acts 9 .4-6)

Reflection: “What was revealed to Saul was that God was not on the side of the religious and political authorities who had killed Jesus. On the contrary, God was on the side of the One who had been crucified as a blasphemer, who had been accused of being possessed by Beelzebul, who had been handed over as a traitor, an agitator, a pretender to the throne of David and a critic of the Temple....

“On the road to Damascus Saul was faced with this conflict between these two images or beliefs about God. He was struck blind by it. It was his kairos. Saul became Paul when he accepted in faith that the true God was in Jesus and that the risen Lord was in the very people whom he had been persecuting.”

In foreshadowing how Peter would die, the gospel of John actually says much more about the way Peter would live: in full obedience to the gospel. Like Paul, Peter found new life and freedom in his willingness to be bound by discipleship.
