The Scripture ~

The Last Days
Lessons of War

They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they shall be offspring blessed by the LORD -- and their descendants as well.

Isaiah 65.21-23

Meditation:
Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you...
(2 Thessalonians 3.6—7)

Reflection:

"The great spiritual leaders, from St. Benedict to St. Catherine of Siena to Martin Luther King Jr. to Thomas Merton, have grasped the truth that the power of the renewing word of God cannot be kept within the safe boundaries of the personal or interpersonal. They call for a new Jerusalem, a new earth, a new global community."
- Henri Nouwen, "Living in Joyful Ecstasy"
