The Scripture ~

Sightless Prophets
Surely We Are Not Blind, Are We?

Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind." Some of the Pharisees near him heard this and said to him, "Surely we are not blind, are we?" Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would not have sin. But now that you say, 'We see,' your sin remains."

John 9.39-41

Meditation:
Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" (John 9:2)

Reflection:

The disciples ask an honest question: What is the cause of this man's suffering? Their query presumes a traditional explanation of illness, which saw it as a direct result of sin. The social dimension of sin is evident in Hebrew scriptures, but it does not have the final word. While the father's sins extend to "the third and the fourth generations," God's "steadfast love" is shown to "the thousandth generation" (Exodus 20:5-6).
