Your Prayer Notes:

The Ministries at MAIN Street Shelter.

Please pray that God would bless our endeavors as we ready the shelter for the fall.

Pray for Pastor Kenn Cosgrove and Family. They must move out of their home by August 15th, and are looking for another.

Pray for Franny as she remembers the first anniversary of her mother's (Nancy Wambold) death. Please remember Melvin's family too. We miss them both, but they see Jesus, face to face. Amen.

Welcome Guests

Go ye, therefore, and provoke

Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.

✚ Welcome to Church!

✚ Paul's backward ethics

✚ transformation of who?

Meditation:

12 Therefore, do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. 13 No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. 14 For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. 15 What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means!

Reflection:

The New Testament words for conversion (metanoein and epistrephein) mean "to turn around." Turning around involves stopping and proceeding in a new direction. The New Testament stresses the necessity of a radical turnabout and invites us to pursue an entirely different course of life. Thus, fundamental change of direction is central to the meaning of the words. The assumption—from the preaching of John the Baptist through Jesus to the first apostles—is that we are on the wrong path, moving away from God. The Bible refers to our self-determined course as walking in sin, darkness, blindness, dullness, sleep, and hardness of heart. To convert is to make an about-face and take a new path..

In Romans 6 and throughout the Bible, God demands not just intellectual assent, but a radical change of life direction away from sin and towards transformation and life. Jim Wallis
